

More than 1,300 Employees of Camden Property Trust Show “Camden Cares”

HOUSTON, TX (December 6, 2016) –Camden Cares had another good showing this year with more than 1,370 employees of Camden Property Trust taking time over the last three months to participate in the annual volunteer campaign which encourages employees to help improve their local communities.

Volunteers in seven states took part in almost two dozen separate events involving projects such as landscaping, painting, house maintenance and construction of new homes for veterans and low income families and helping in local food banks.

Among the highlights:

- In Charlotte, N.C. 80 volunteers from Camden Property Trust’s 12 local communities worked with Charlotte Family Housing to work on landscaping and maintenance of their facility.
- In Raleigh, NC, approximately 50 volunteers from Camden worked with Rebuilding Together of the Triangle to repair two homes belonging to needy senior citizens.
- Rebuilding Together Greater Dallas in Dallas, TX put 130 Camden volunteers from their 5 local communities to work in a neighborhood revitalization project with maintenance on 7 homes owned by veterans or widows of veterans.
- Rebuilding Together Houston in Houston, TX entertained the help from over 400 volunteers from 19 local Camden communities to repair a total of 14 homes in two Houston neighborhoods.
- Camden also has an ongoing relationship with New Hope Housing in Houston, TX that provides life-stabilizing, affordable, permanent housing with support services for people who live on very limited incomes.
- At The Food Bank of Corpus Christi in Corpus Christi, 23 Camden volunteers sorted and packed more than 500 boxes of food.
- At American Family Housing Long Beach Project in Long Beach, CA, 12 Camden volunteers assisted with the turning of several units.
- Habitat for Humanity in Arizona utilized over 50 Camden volunteers to build a habitat home.
- Extreme Community Makeover in Denver, CO put 58 Camden volunteers to work in a neighborhood makeover project that involved several houses.
- In South Florida, 60 Camden volunteers worked with Feeding South Florida

- to inspect, sort and box up over 34,000 pounds of food.
- Gateway Center in Atlanta GA had over 100 Camden volunteers paint, do yard work and trash pickup at this shelter for veterans.

“We want to thank all the wonderful employees who gave up their time and energy to come out and pack food containers, pound nails, pitch roofs and paint walls during Camden Cares 2016,” said Malcolm Stewart, Camden’s COO . “We also want to thank all the fantastic Veteran and Housing organizations we worked with this year for letting us participate and give back to our communities.”

###

About Camden Cares: Camden invests in every community they serve. They support those in need and give back to those who have given so much. When working together with their neighbors, Camden believes it creates Living Excellence.

About Camden Property Trust: Camden Property Trust, an S&P 400 Company, is a real estate company engaged in the ownership, management, development, redevelopment, acquisition, and construction of multifamily apartment communities. Camden owns interests in and operates 151 properties containing 52,771 apartment homes across the United States. Upon completion of 7 properties under development, the Company’s portfolio will increase to 55,248 apartment homes in 158 properties. Camden was recently named by FORTUNE® Magazine for the ninth consecutive year as one of the “100 Best Companies to Work For” in America, ranking #9.

For more information, contact: Nancy Amaral or Andrew Neilly, Gallen.Neilly, (925) 930-9848, nancy@gallen.com andrew@gallen.com