GLL Real Estate Partners Completes The Sale of 9533 Brighton Way

Los Angeles, CA, April 29, 2013 — GLL Real Estate Partners announced that it has closed the sale of 9533 Brighton Way, an 18,205-square-foot retail and office building within the famed Golden Triangle district of Beverly Hills. Managing Director Michael Zietsman and Vice President Patrick Inglis of Jones Lang LaSalle's Capital Markets team led the closing of this transaction. Jenel Management purchased the building, which is fully leased to Giorgio Armani.

Located between Rodeo and Camden Drives, 9533 Brighton Way occupies one of the largest storefronts in Beverly Hills, spanning more than a half-city block. Originally built in 1930, the building underwent renovations in 1991 and 2001.

About GLL Real Estate Partners

GLL Real Estate Partners GmbH (GLL) is a Munich based real estate funds management group. GLL was formed in 2000 by three senior executives of HypoVereinsbank, Germany's then largest real estate bank, in a joint venture with Lend Lease Corporation and Italian insurance giant Assicurazioni Generali. Generali has some €420 billion under management and is capitalised at over €25 billion. During 2006 Lend Lease divested and the Group is now majority owned by its management team and the balance remains with Generali.

GLL's funds under management now exceed €4 billion with investments across Western Europe, Central Eastern Europe and the United States. Investors with the Group include pension funds, insurance companies and sovereign entities.
