

JLL Strengthens Tenant Rep Expertise in Puget Sound Region

18-year CRE veteran Ryan Kadletz joins JLL as VP in Seattle

SEATTLE Nov. 20, 2014 — With tenants throughout the Puget Sound market facing intensifying competition for space, their need for experienced tenant rep brokers with superior local knowledge as well as access to global support is crucial. JLL's tenant rep team, which is already one of the strongest in the region, got a further boost with the addition of Ryan Kadletz as Vice President.

An 18-year veteran of commercial real estate and a highly regarded advisor to Puget Sound-area tenants, Kadletz will provide real estate advisory services to existing clients and work to expand the JLL footprint in the local market from the downtown Seattle office.

Ryan is highly experienced at structuring and analyzing complex real estate transactions. His service to clients involves consultation on acquisitions, dispositions, renewals and relocations. Prior to joining JLL, Ryan worked for CBRE and Kidder Mathews.

Kadletz is a graduate of the University of Washington, where he received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and is a member of the university's football alumni group, The Big W Club. He also volunteers with the Special Olympics and is a former volunteer football coach at Seattle Preparatory High School.
